

January 15, 1984 - Board meeting of the Nevada Stamp Study Society

In attendance: Bill Brew, Ruthe Dreiling, Jack Barriage, Gloria Greene, Al Greene, Dorothy Johnson and Jessie Rogers. Dick Dreiling was present to assist with dispersement of the Russ Thayer stamp collection.

The meeting was called to order by President Bill Brew. Minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report indicated a balance of $382.19, and the money market, $1,331.94.

A discussion was held concerning the storage of frames, and that the place rented is the Sierra Royal.

Jack Barriage reported that he had written to Linn's about placing an ad.

Bill said that he'd like to schedule work days for working on frames. Also, he said that a new roster had been typed by his wife, Laura.

There was a discussion as to what to do with old membership cards.

It was planned that February 25 will be stamp-trading day; March 10, members' bourse; March 24, "How to Bid at Auctions;" and April 14 is still open. April 28 will be a philatelic auction.

It was suggested that the Norrises be asked to be representatives to ATA.

Jack reported on the air races and balloons. He read a letter from the air races people, and will meet with them soon.

Ruthe reported that Lois Willick wants to help at the Easter Seal Exhibition, and will make up packets for the kids.

There was a discussion on buying advertising.

Jessie Rogers and Dorothy Johnson volunteered for refreshments in February. Ruthe Dreiling will host in April.

Bill announced that the next board meeting will be February 16.

A motion to adjourn was made by Bill and seconded by Al Greene. Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted

Dorothy Johnson

Dorothy Johnson

January 14, 1981 - Regular meeting of the Nevada Stamp Study Society

The meeting was called to order by President Bill Brew.

On-time winner was Rosalee Emerman, who was also introduced as a guest. Another guest, Mary May, was introduced by Jessie Rogers. The drawing was won by Dorothy Johnson. It was $11.00.

Bill thanked Dee Dreiling for making up a new membership list.

Volunteers to represent ATA were requested, but no response.

Bill announced that there were still some book marks for sale @ 50¢.

Jack Barriage showed covers for Universal Ship Cancellation Society and Alaska.

There was a mini-auction conducted by Dick Dreiling.

Jack gave a report on the Convention.

Guest speaker was Richard Svid, a member, who gave a wonderful, informative talk with illustrations, on "Research of the Cachet Makers of F. D. C."

It was announced that a members' bourse will be on March 10, and the white-elephant auction on the last meeting in February.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Dorothy Johnson
Dorothy Johnson