

Dreiling Award Presentation

This is the first presentation of the newly established NSSS award. Here is the citation to accompany the award. It was presented at the July 13 meeting.

Stan Cronwall joined the Nevada Stamp Study Society (NSSS) in May 2000. Stan became a club Director within months of joining and was elected NSSS President two years later, serving 2003-2005. Stan later served three additional consecutive terms as NSSS President from 2009-2015. In between his Presidential stints, Stan served as Director and interim Vice President. Stan has also served as the club's Program Chair and is a regular contributor to the club's Post Boy newsletter.

Stan Cronwall, Harvey Edwards & Dick Dreiling

Stan has been active in many club activities, having served as the Greater Reno Stamp & Cover Show (GRS&CS) Chair in 2002, the Bourse Co-Chair and then Chair from 2002 through 2006, and Show Security Chair from 2003 through 2018. Stan has developed and shown over 17 multi-frame exhibits at the GRS&CS and/or the Nevada State Fair. Stan has also attended local, regional, and national stamp shows as a NSSS ambassador promoting the NSSS and GRS&CS.

Stan has actively worked to introduce the public to stamp collecting. Stan initiated setting up a stamp display at the Vassar Post Office and helped set up additional displays at local libraries. Stan provides guidance and answers as a NSSS representative to novice collectors as well as non-collectors about their material along with information about the club.

First recipient's name on the permanent plaque

Additionally, Stan has been active at the Nevada State Railroad Museum in Carson City. He served three consecutive terms on the Board of Trustees and one term as Vice President. Stan headed up the Museum's membership drive starting in 2006. He organized the Museum's direct mail marketing program for the Railroad Symposium from 2002-2007 and was responsible for symposium security from 2002-2006.

Whereas Stan Cronwall has, in the spirit of the Dreiling Award, provided exceptional service to the Nevada Stamp Study Society and the community, the NSSS Board accepts and approves the nomination of Stan Cronwall as the first recipient of the Dreiling Award

Harvey Edwards, President, July 13, 2019