

Auction Bucks Auction Report

By John Walter

Mike Potter and Erik Fields were the auctioneers for the Auction Bucks auction with Nadiah Beekun helping.

There were 62 lots with $225,165 (auction bucks) spent. The most expensive item was an 1886 silver dollar (99% silver) which sold for $40,000. A small wall clock went for $28,000; a larger clock went for AB $25,000. Philatelic items: UN collection – $15,000; British Commonwealth collection - $20,000; mystery box - $15,000. Wine bottles went for about $1,000, and large plastic bins went for $9,000. This was the largest number of auction bucks ever spent at one of these auctions.

Auction Bucks auction items at Nov. 12 meeting

Mike Potter, auctioneer, with faux plant.

Erik Fields, auctioneer, with live